THE PRESIDENT WOULD LIKE TO SAY A FEW WORDS...

Looking back at the month of September, there were many memorable moments.

The month began with a feeling of joy, seeing our Religious School grow and thrive. Our Babushka Bakers have been doing a yeoman's job of keeping us all in delicacies. Laura Gamba has returned with Tai Chi for all. Adult education with Torah Study, Jewish History and Hebrew has been going full blast.

Excitement grew with the precursor to the High Holidays, Selichot, where we heard the first Shofar blast. Cantor Bill arrived in town and Rosh Hashanah heralded in 5784. The services, beautifully and thoughtfully designed by Rabbi Jen and our Cantor, were musical, thought-provoking, and inspiring.

We met quite a few newcomers during the services. A lovely time was had by those who went to Crews Lake Park for Taschlich; Brotherhood provided hot dogs for all! For the first time, we observed Day 2 of Rosh Hashanah with an abbreviated, but meaningful service. Our teens participated in the service and were amazing! It was attended mostly by the kids and families of the Religious School, though I hope that next year others will join in.

Shabbat Shuvah brought two wonderfully different and musical services. The High Holidays were capped by outstanding renditions of Kol Nidre by Cantor Bill and Jill Pfluke, who also added a beautiful background to our moving Stone Ceremony during Yiskor. Yom Kippur Morning and Afternoon services gave us many beautiful readings, magnificent High Holiday renditions by Cantor Bill, important and meaningful Devarim from Rabbi Jen and wonderful Torah and Haftarah readings. Many of our members participated in ushering, greeting newcomers, doing readings, reading from the Torah and Haftarah, opening the Ark. Ending the service with Havdalah and breaking the fast together in the Lobby seemed to be a perfect close to the holidays. It's that feeling of a family coming together for important events that makes the holidays at TBD so special for me.

Of course, now that October is here, things are NOT slowing down. Sukkot is upon us and Simchat Torah will be coming up in just a few days. We are frantically cooking and baking in preparation for our Holiday Bazaar and Jewish Food Fest to be held on November 5.

Please be sure to volunteer to cook or bake in advance or serve on that day. Call the office, Jan Humphreys, Tina Langsam, Mickie Fligleman, or myself to let us know how you would like to help. Also, be sure to invite friends and neighbors.

A special note to those who attended High Holiday services: we would love to see you soon again at Temple Beth David. Please strongly consider becoming a part of our family; I know you will be glad you did.

My heart goes out to Ken Becker on the loss of his wonderful fiancée, Cathy Stillwell.

L'shalom,
Marlene

A message from the Rabbi. October, 2023

I am filled with gratitude as I reflect on the high holidays here at Temple Beth David. I witnessed the tremendous amount of effort by our community in making these sacred holy days a success...setting up chairs & tables, cooking & baking, practicing shofar, learning torah and haftarah portions, sound checks, passing out books, decorating, teaching our children about holidays, and much more. Todah rabah - thank you so much for your hard work and dedication!

My gratitude extends to every person who attended a service, in person or virtually. In whatever ways you participate and engage, your presence makes a difference. The amazing sounds of the holidays were inspiring: waking up spiritually by the shofar blasts, hearing Cantor Bill's beautiful voice throughout services, and listening to children sing Avinu Malkeinu with ruach - spirit.

We move away from the days of repentance, the day of atonement, to days of celebration. In blessings, Sukkot is referred to as z'man simchateinu, "the time of our celebrating." During Sukkot, we give thanks, particularly for food and shelter. Then, as a community, we celebrate endings and beginnings as we read the conclusion of one cycle of the Torah and the beginning of another.

During this time of renewal and gratitude, I am drawn to three connected Jewish values:

- Adam yehidi nivra: every person is a unique creation - appreciation for the wonderful things that makes each person an individual and celebrating uniqueness;
- Limud zechut: finding merit in others - a concerted and creative effort to discover and shine a light on merits, including those often hidden;
- Lomed mikol adam: each person has something to offer, something they can teach us.

"The essentialness of true k'hilah k'doshah (holy community) not only embraces the idea that everyone is unique but also recognizes that individuality as essential."¹

Our k'hilah k'doshah at Temple Beth David is powerful because of our amazing leaders, members and friends. Looking forward to discovering more of the amazing merits and talents of our TBD community in 5784!

L'Shalom,
Rabbi Jen

Catherine "Cathy" Stillwell, deceased, Sept 13th 2023

I would like to thank my TBD friends for your sympathy, prayers and kindness during this difficult time, after the passing of my fiancée, Cathy Stillwell. You should also know, that Cathy was so happy, for being a part of TBD. Some of you became true friends with Cathy, and for that she was thankful. She was intensively studying for her conversion, and hoped to be ready by next spring.

All of you made her life so much more meaningful and joyous, and for that, I will be forever grateful.

*My warmest regards to all of you,
