International Holocaust Remembrance Day, January 27, 2023

"The UN General Assembly designated January 27—the anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz-Birkenau—as International Holocaust Remembrance Day.

Every member state of the UN has an obligation to honor the victims of the Nazi era and to develop educational programs to help prevent future genocides."

Cover picture: Memorial at the Great Synagogue of Stockholm, to the victims of the Holocaust

The 8,500 names on the stone tablets that make up the monument are both a reminder and an invitation.

Reminder: The horrific extermination of Jews.
Appeal: This must never be forgotten and Never happen again.

The names on the monument are murdered
Relatives of those who survived and came to Sweden.

The monument is characterized, in the same way as Jewish burial places, by the greatest simplicity.

The starting point for the design of the monument was a dignified, secluded place on Jewish land for remembrance and reflection. The location next to the synagogue gives the memory of the deceased a natural home.

The extension in Aaron Isaac's alley and the opening towards Raoul Wallenberg's square forms a bridge between the Jewish and the Swedish.

The large post-war group included about 10,000 concentration camp survivors, most of them without families and sick from severe hardships. The survivors who came to Sweden were convinced that the peace concluded in May 1945 would prevail forever and that the defeat of Nazism would mean the end of all racist movements in the future.

It didn't happen that way, and as a result the Association of Holocaust Survivors was founded, which took as its most important task to work against Nazism and the denial of the Holocaust. The idea of erecting a name monument was presented in the spring of 1994.

The memorial to the victims of the Holocaust was designed by sculptor Sivert Lindblom and architect Gabriel Herdevall. The monument was inaugurated in 1998 by King Carl XVI Gustav.

Temple Beth David's Live Streaming Service!

Our service times are as follows:

Friday nights at 7:30pm

Saturday mornings at 10:00am

To view any of our online live-streaming services, simply go to our website at www.tbdf.org

On the top of the page, click on "Watch Live Service" and follow the directions. Then, sit back and ENJOY!

Top three reasons why you should log in to our live streaming service.

1. There is no synagogue in your area.
2. You are curious as to what a TBD service looks like.
3. You are unable to travel for any reason.

THE PRESIDENT WOULD LIKE TO SAY A FEW WORDS...

As we enter 2023, I'd like to wish each of you a year filled with health and joy. January at TBD promises to be a busy month, filled with new opportunities to gather with our friends. The official name of TBD is Temple Beth David Jewish Center, Inc. When you think about it, we are THE primary Jewish Center of the Nature Coast. Pasco/Hudson also has a Jewish Center and they too, are on the Nature Coast.

Temple Beth David has so much to offer for Jews of all ages and backgrounds (and those who are interested in knowing more about Judaism.) Of course, the centerpiece is our weekly Shabbat celebration, with Friday evening Erev Shabbat services and Saturday morning Shabbat services. Though we offer a streaming of all services on Zoom and Facebook Live, the full communal experience is best felt in person. It is only then that you will be able to truly feel the thrill of touching the Torah as it is paraded around, tasting the home-made challah at the Oneg or Kiddush, meeting a new interesting friend, making a comment to the interesting d'var prepared by our Rabbi or lay leader, checking out new inventory in the Gift Shop or books in our well-stocked Library. Of course, if services are not "your thing," you might like to join the Challah bakers (they also bake delicious rugelach, babka, etc.) If exercise is important to you, we offer a FREE Tai Chi for Arthritis class every Tuesday and Thursday. Perhaps you are a family with children: our Religious School and family activities continue throughout the year. We are even adding a Gaming Day for teens.

For women, we have a strong Sisterhood with monthly events and also a monthly Rosh Chodesh Potluck Supper, where we have a wonderful opportunity to learn about the new month and also about ourselves and each other. This month, we will be hosting Sisterhood Shabbat, starting with a delicious Shabbat dinner.

Our Brotherhood offers a chance for men to be together and help TBD with various projects. Perhaps you are interested in Cultural Arts; each month we offer some type of program.

If you would like to become more involved in Temple life, our committees need members in every capacity. Check out our monthly calendar and let the committee chair know you would like to join the committee.

Many who are reading this article are Temple members. As you may realize, many of our long-time members have passed away or moved during the past year or two.

This creates a financial strain on our budget. The only way TBD can continue to survive and thrive is to add new members. With all the growth in Hernando, Pasco, and Citrus County, I am counting on each of you to reach out to someone who moved here recently or is not currently a member and invite them to join you at a service or Temple event. At the very least, give the Temple office, or our Membership Chair, Ellie Catcher, the name and contact information of a potential member. Others who are reading this are not TBD members. If you have been “on the fence” about becoming a member, please know how important it is that a Jewish community continue to exist here. Don’t take it for granted that we will be here without your help. Congregations around the country have been forced to close. Don’t this happen here! We welcome you all with open arms!

L’shalom,

Marlene Shaw,
President

A message from the Rabbi

January 2023

Shalom Temple Beth David friends,

Welcome to the new secular year of 2023.

As we come to the end of the winter holiday season, you might think that our celebrations are over... BUT WAIT there's always something more to celebrate!

As usual, I will be with the Temple Beth David community for two Shabbatot in January: January 13-14 and January 27-28, and we have special programming on the calendar for each of those weekends.

Please join me on Friday evening, January 13 when Kabbalat Shabbat will begin at 7pm (note the time change!) and is designed as an intergenerational service that includes our Religious School students. This creative and interactive evening will be instrumental to bringing in and celebrating Shabbat together. I hope you will be there.

Another wonderful Shabbat event will take place on Friday, January 27 as we celebrate Sisterhood Shabbat. It promises to be a beautiful evening of community as the women of our Temple lead the service.

Also in January, we begin reading the second Book of the Torah, Shemot (Exodus). In this next section of the Torah narrative, we meet Moshe (Moses), we see the hardships that the Pharaoh inflicts upon the Children of Israel, and we experience the beginning of the freedom journey from Egypt to the Promised Land.

Our Jewish scholars have pointed out that the transition between the book of Bereishit (Genesis) and the book of Shemot (Exodus) can also be perceived as the transition between being individuals or family units into becoming a nation.

So much of what defines us as the B'nai Yisrael (the children of Israel) can be found in this book of the Torah. There is much to learn in the stories of the Divine choosing Moses as a leader, the way we see the siblings; Moses, Aaron and Miriam transition into their roles in guiding the Israelites, and how these narratives clearly show the very human traits of both bravery and fear, as well as blind faith. During what was a difficult and unsettling time in our history, our ancestors grew into a holy people.

This month, we too, are gifted with opportunities to gather together as a nation, a holy people, in support of Jewish leadership in our own Temple family.

I truly hope to see you in-person at each of our special Shabbat services.

Wishing you good health, happiness and unexpected blessings in 2023.

L'hitraot,

Rabbi Karen Tashman

LETZTE NEUES* FROM YOUR BOARD AND YOUR COMMITTEES !

* "Letzte Neues" is Yiddish, means "Latest News."

The following is a summary of the December Board meeting, which took place on December 21st.

- The President, in her remarks noted that communication and teamwork need to be improved to keep TBD strong. As such, Rabbi Tashman has been asked and has agreed, to put together a Leadership training. This will take place in January, most likely January 15. The chair of Fundraising spoke and reaffirmed the President's remarks.
- The Bazaar and Thanksgiving were both financial successes.
- During the Treasurer's report, it was brought out that dues collections so far this year are about $6000 less than last year, due mainly to members passing on. We need to make a concerted effort to add new members to avoid a shortfall. Bryan and Barbara Blavatt are once again funding the cost of the High Holiday cantor for next year through the Muriel Feldman Fund. This may be the last year we can expect this donation; if so, we will need to find replacement funding.
The Budget & Finance chair requested that Committee Chairs get their funding requests for next year's budget in by January 23.
- Funds were moved from several unused budget items to cover Security and Technology.
- The asking price for the lot donated to the Temple was once again reduced.
- Future upcoming events include Rosh Chodesh, Sisterhood Shabbat Dinner and Service, Kids/Family night dinner and Service.
- Attendance at services was discussed. Members need to make an increased effort to come to Friday night and Saturday services. The Temple is working on ways to make coming to services more inviting.
- A Congregational Meeting will be held on Sunday, February 5 at noon; lunch will be served.
- A Leadership Training on Sunday January 15 was announced.
- New members Judith Shane and Darlene Bell were approved.
- Everyone was reminded about donating to our Hanukkah Gelt drive. The money will go towards paying off our mortgage, thereby freeing up funds to pay a full-time Rabbi.

Taking the notes: Ronnie Cohen, VP / Marlene Shaw, President

Religious School News!

December was a wonderful time for our Religious School students! Numerous crafts were a great addition to our Hanukkah curriculum. Pictures tell the story of the students hard at work and having fun.

As mentioned last month, a special Hanukkah gift was presented by the students at the Night of 100 Menorahs to the Congregation. Each child had their handprint and name made into a wonderful Challah cover for Temple Beth David. Thanks to Carla Slavin-Klein and Jan Humphreys for their sewing expertise to help create this Challah cover.

Also thanks to teachers Cookie Goodman and Lynn Budnick for their help in making Hanukkah a special time, and to Ali Baylor for her craft ideas and help to make them come alive!

A special message from TBD Caring Committee

Our Caring Committee has been truly dedicated to contacting all of our TBD members throughout these past 20 months of social isolation due to the Pandemic. Our message has been sincere and hopefully appreciated by all. In many ways it has brought us all closer to those we may have never spoken to or known prior to this challenge. We want to share these beautiful written thoughts by Edgar Allen, Founder of Easter Seals, that reflect our mission.

"We have but one Life. We get nothing out of that life except by putting something into it. To relieve suffering, to help the unfortunate, to do kind acts and deeds is, after all, the one sure way to secure happiness or to achieve real success. Your life and mine shall be values not by what we take... but by what we give."

Please notify the Temple, a TBD board member, or Marty Reiman, with any concerns, health issues, be it mental or physical. We have resources to help.

TBD office phone: 352-686-7034

From all of us, at Temple Beth David!

Welcoming our new members:

Judith Shane

Darlene Bell

We hope that you will enjoy our friendly family.

Welcome!

Todah Rabah!

Ryan Stillman, grandson of our member Rochelle Singer, recently completed a Mitzvah Project of his own design. Recognizing the hunger problem in Hernando County, Ryan initiated a Food Drive in Glen Lakes. He then brought the bags and boxes of food he collected to Temple Beth David, to be disbursed to Gulf Coast Jewish Family Services and People Helping People.

As he was dropping the food off at TBD, a homeless couple happened to drop by seeking a food pantry. We immediately offered some of the food to them.

Ryan, a senior at Weeki Wachee High School, is an honor student. He has just been accepted to his first choice, USF, which he will be attending in the fall. We thank him for his interest in helping the community and wish him well at college.

Ryan, you are always welcome at Temple Beth David!

Sharing Simchas !

Shared joy is double joy!

Do you have anyone or anything you would like to celebrate and at the same time, share your joy with your fellow TBD friends?

*If so, Send an email to or forward your text to the TBD office, to be published in the next edition of the Chai Lights Newsletter.
