THE PRESIDENT WOULD LIKE TO SAY A FEW WORDS...

On March 19, TBD hosted its 27th Annual Jewish Food Festival and Spring Bazaar. A record crowd was in attendance, Jews and non-Jews alike. All seemed to be having a great time, with many eating and simply hanging out to engage in friendly conversation. Almost every morsel of food was sold, with many requests for more frequent Food Fests.

Financially, this was the most successful Food Fest/Bazaar we have hosted.

Many thanks to our sponsors: PREMIER SPONSOR Matt Foreman of Carter Foreman Attorneys at Law, GOLD SPONSORS Gary Fecarrotti of Florida Tax Advisors and the Hernando Sun, SILVER SPONSORS Laura Gamba of Gamba and Associates and Marlene Shaw of McRae & McRae Realty.

Thanks also to Publix and the Red Mule for in-kind donations.

Most importantly, we had unprecedented help from our members, children and friends of members. So many baked and cooked at their own expense, spending hours and days preparing delicacies to sell. Our Babushka Babes (read the article from the Hernando Sun on our Bulletin Board) outdid themselves. Our Fundraising Chair, Mickie Fligleman, together with her large group of helpers, made sure everything went smoothly with our 50 vendors and parking issues. The day of the event over 30 of our members worked tirelessly with smiles on their faces, making a great day even better. I dare not mention names, for fear of leaving someone out. This is what Congregational life should be all about! When we work in unity, we can accomplish great things.

I am looking forward to this year's Congregational Passover Seder on April 5, led by our Interim Rabbi Karen Tashman and catered this year by TooJays.

A zissen Pesach to each of you!

L'shalom, Marlene

A message from the Rabbi

April 2023

Shalom Temple Beth David friends,

We are entering the season of our Jewish springtime holidays, and this year the first four of them all fall in the secular month of April.

In the first week of April we will celebrate Passover together on Wednesday, April 5th with a 1st Night Seder, the official retelling of our hurried departure from Egypt (Mitzrayim) and the beginning of our journey from slavery to freedom.

Each component of the Seder is important as it recounts the story of Moshe, our time in Egypt and the beginning of a new life as the B'nai Yisrael. Every item on the Seder plate holds significance and helps to guide us through this special time of seeing ourselves as a part of the journey. Perhaps most meaningful is that the customs, the conversations and the rituals we are engaging in, are taking place in every Jewish community across the globe. In this moment, we are fully aware of being part of something greater. This is our story, the narrative of the Jewish people.

A short time later, on the evening of Tuesday, April 17 we will gather again, this time on zoom, for Yom HaShaoh - Holocaust Remembrance Day, another important, yet tragic day in our history. This time our gathering will be a solemn one to serve as a commemoration of the six million Jews murdered in the Holocaust, and the heroism of survivors and rescuers.

On Sunday, April 23 we will come together again, this time to blend together the bitter and the sweet, first to commemorate and then to celebrate two of Israel's national holidays that fall only one day apart from one another.

- Yom HaZikaron (Israel's Memorial Day) is a national day of mourning in Israel and in Jewish communities throughout the world for the men and women who have given their lives for the establishment, safety and security of the State of Israel and its people.
- Yom HaAtzmaut (Israel's Independence Day) celebrating Israel's Independence and the establishment of the State of Israel in 1948. This year is extra special as we mark Israel's 75th birthday.

Celebrating Israel's birthday as a holy community is one way to reinforce the message that these men and women did not die in vain. Combining these days in our thoughts and in our gathering serves as a reminder that their resilience and sacrifices helped pave the way for the Jewish homeland to exist and stand strong.

I believe that the message of the Passover story is at the core of all of this. I look forward to sharing with you our stories of fighting for freedom and survival, the journey into becoming a holy nation, and the beauty of a homeland for us, the B'nai Yisrael. Please join me throughout this month of holding onto the legacy of our past and embracing our future.

Wishing you a zissen Pesach, a sweet and meaningful Passover.

L'hitraot,

Rabbi Karen Tashman

Sale of Chametz information

Dear Friends,

The Torah instructs us that during Passover we are to eat no leavened foods, known in Hebrew as chametz, nor are we to even have those foods in our possession.

To fulfill the mitzvah of ridding ourselves of chametz, our custom is two-fold.

Most familiar is the pre-Passover cleaning. We do a deep cleaning of our kitchens and pantries, stoves and sofa cushions, so that all traces of leavened foods are removed. This is our Jewish Spring Cleaning.

But what do we do with our stores of unopened leavened products? Must we rid ourselves of them as well? What will we eat after the holiday is over?

The Sages, not wanting to impose an undue burden on the community, came up with a labor-saving workaround.

Since the Torah says that we are not to have any leavened foods “in our possession,” the practice was established of storing our unopened chametz in a closed closet or cabinet in our home and then symbolically selling that chametz to a non-Jewish neighbor for a token price. That way, the chametz is no longer in our “possession,” and we have fulfilled the Biblical commandment.

At the end of Passover the neighbor “sells” the chametz back to us.

To make the practice of selling your chametz simple, Temple Beth David will sell chametz on behalf of any congregant who wishes us to do so.

All you have to do is complete and submit the attached form (see the next page) by April 4, 2023 and, as your rabbi, I will happily be your agent for the selling of your chametz.

Wishing you a season of renewed liberation.

L'hitraot,

Rabbi Karen Tashman

Purim celebration at TBD!

On March 5th, TBD celebrated Purim, under the leadership of our interim Rabbi, Karen Tashman.

It was a joyful celebration, where the story (the Megillah) of how Queen Esther, married to the Persian king Ahasuerus, saved the Jewish population from the Evil Haman, a court official, who wanted to impose a pogrom onto the Jewish people, and kill them.

Of course, as being a tradition, we had a costume parade, and prizes for the best costumes in the different classes of couples, individual, and kids were awarded to Rabin Karen Tashman and her husband as Dorothy and the Scarecrow from the “Wizard of Oz”.

Eileen Beaman won the prize as carrying the best costume for “Competitors over 16 years of age” and Nathan and Logan Humphreys won the prize for “Best dressed shepards”.

Michaela Shilensky won the prize as best dressed teenager.

TBD 27th Yearly Food Fest a success!

The 27 yearly TBD Food Fest was held on March 19th, and after six hours, the fundraising success was a fact. After a long time of planning and preparation, the Food Fest General, Mickie Fligleman, could see her bird, take to the skies.

Mickie Fligleman

The baking team of TBD, the “Babushka Babes,” former “Babushka Bakers” sold out everything they had, after a few hours, and that was a lot of challes and pastries.

The total number of bread and pastries was 64 challas, 42 babkas, 300 hamantaschen, 150 macaroons, 150 rugelach’s, and 24 applestrudels.

According to the “Babushka” team leader, Jan Humprheys, they could have sold much more.

All the hot food disappeared as well, and after five hours, around 3pm, most of the food was gone.

With the successful result, TBD is now considering to plan for a new foodfest in the autumn, so this might not just be a yearly event, but a twice-a-year event. Most of the vendors were also positive, and plan to return at the next upcoming occasion.

Here are some pictures for you to enjoy.

To My Temple Beth David Family

As some of you know Manny and I moved to Bradenton full time now.

It was a hard decision to sell my beautiful home and leave our beautiful synagogue TBD. I prayed about it and knew it was the right thing to do financially and health wise.

Since our car accident in July we could not keep up with everything needed to do at the house. Our home in Bradenton was the place to go. Nothing needed to be done (except clean and laundry still).

It's also a lot smaller 😊

I want to thank you all for your friendship and pray TBD continues to grow and gets a full time Rabbi.
