The President would like to say a few words...

It is hard to believe, but the summer is almost at an end. School starts in a few days and we are now ramping up for the High Holy Days. The month of August will be a month of welcoming back those who we have not seen for a while and welcoming those who are just getting to know us. We hope we will see you, whether you are a member or someone just searching for a Jewish home, at our Welcome Shabbat Dinner on Friday, August 12. Join our Interim Rabbi Karen Tashman and old and new folks of every age for a delicious meal, Erev Shabbat service and a sumptuous Oneg Shabbat, some songs and lively conversation. Celebrate Tu b'Av (Jewish Valentine's Day) with us. If you are more of a Saturday morning Shabbat attendee, we invite you to come on the 13th of August for a spiritual service and extra-special Kiddush! The following Sunday, August 21st, is devoted to our families: kids, teens, parents, and grandparents will be meeting at Pine Island from 10am to 2pm for sun, sand, music, a potluck lunch, and info about our exciting new programs for kids and teens. Religious School starts the following week, August 28th from 9:30 to noon. Added to our faculty this year will be Ali Baylor, our Nature and Arts and Crafts specialist, Nava Cohen who will be doing a monthly program with our teens and Jan Humphreys, who will be a middle grade teacher. Check out our fantastic Shalom Learning Jewish Values based curriculum.

Please join us on the weekend of August 26-28th when a Rabbinical Candidate, Rabbi David Joslin, will be conducting services both Friday night and Saturday morning. He will, of course, be available for questions at the Oneg and the Kiddush. On Sunday, Rabbi Joslin will be at TBD to meet the students, teachers, and parents on the first day of Religious School. Rabbi Joslin received his Rabbinic ordination and M.A in Hebrew Letters from Hebrew College in Newton MA.

As you can see, exciting things are happening at TBD. We hope to see you often this month.

L'shalom,
Marlene Shaw, President

A message from the Rabbi

August 2022

Shalom Temple Beth David Friends,

I am thrilled to be serving as your Interim Rabbi and thought, just as I want to get to know you that you may want to know more about me.

My life has always been defined by my relationship with Judaism. Growing up I loved being Jewish! I loved the way each holiday was celebrated, singing in the synagogue choir, attending Shabbat Services and being involved in youth activities. In my high school years, I was teaching Hebrew School and leading youth groups. My involvement with Jewish Community started young and never wavered. As a teenager, I traveled throughout Israel and immediately fell deeply in love with our people, our history and our homeland.

Family has always been important in my life. As one of four children, our family life was always busy, loud and filled with adventures. Camping, boating, and motorcycle riding are just a few of the memories that helped to shape my love of family and solidify the strong relationships between me and my siblings, which in turn was passed on to the next generation. Still true today, my favorite people to spend time with are my own husband and children, my siblings & their spouses, and their children with their partners.

My husband, Jeff and I raised four children of our own. Our family is spread across many time zones from Israel to Florida to Colorado to Montana, and at the same time with the gift of technology, we speak and spend time with one another daily despite the miles.

Professionally, I have worked in Jewish communal service for over 39 years. With a background in education, the majority of those years have been focused on Jewish Education and Congregational Executive Director roles. I have been privileged to provide leadership to Jewish communities in New York, Georgia and Florida in congregational, summer camp, day school and programming settings. My journey and passion for embracing Jewish community led the way to pursuing and receiving my rabbinic ordination.

When I am not here in Spring Hill with you, I serve full time as the Director of Development and Communications for Menorah Life, a Jewish community sponsored not-for-profit senior healthcare organization in St Petersburg.

I look forward to getting to know you better, and to continuing to build holy community with you.

L'hitraot,

Rabbi Karen Tashman

On Monday evening
August 8 at 7:30 PM,
Rabbi Emanuel will be offering a special class on Zoom. The topic will be:

The Ten Commandments: Two Versions?

There are two versions of the Ten Commandments: the first is in Exodus (Yitro) and the second is in Deuteronomy (Va-ethanan), which is the Parasha we always read after Tish'ah B'Av. Are they identical? If not, why? Which one is the "Correct" one?

In this class, we'll try to compare the two versions and discuss the differences between them.

Be prepared!

Rabbi Emanuel Update

The Rabbi is continuing with his treatments and medical tests. If you would like to get updates on Rabbi Emanuel please visit his web page at: <https://rabbiemanuel.faith/> and sign up for his newsletter.

Tai Chi - something for you ?

For the past 12 weeks 8 women have participated in Tia Chi classes at TBD. Improving ones strength, flexibility, balance, and a gentle way for stress reduction are only a few of the positive assets of this form of exercise.

What is Thai Chi ?

Tai chi is an ancient Chinese tradition that, today, is practiced as a graceful form of exercise. It involves a series of movements performed in a slow, focused manner and accompanied by deep breathing.

Tai chi, also called tai chi chuan, is a noncompetitive, self-paced system of gentle physical exercise and stretching. Each posture flows into the next without pause, ensuring that your body is in constant motion.

Tai chi has many different styles. Each style may subtly emphasize various tai chi principles and methods. There are variations within each style. Some styles may focus on health maintenance, while others focus on the martial arts aspect of tai chi.

Tai chi is different from yoga, another type of meditative movement. Yoga includes various physical postures and breathing techniques, along with meditation.

HERE'S ANOTHER WAY YOU CAN GIVE TO TBD!

Do you shop on Amazon? If yes, then we have an easy way to support Temple Beth David with each purchase you make. A few minutes is all it takes to set it up. Just type the word 'smile.' before Amazon.com and you will be brought to the same Amazon site, but on the fundraising side. (<http://smile.amazon.com/>)

Support Temple Beth David.

When you shop at smile.amazon.com,
Amazon donates.

Go to smile.amazon.com

amazonsmile

The first time you go to the 'Smile' side, you will be asked to choose the organization you wish to support. Search for Temple Beth David and make sure it is in Spring Hill (it's actually listed as Temple Beth David Jewish Center). Select us and then just use Amazon like you always do. Everything is exactly the same but remember, we only get credit if you order from the Smile side. It must say 'smile.amazon.com' every time. You use your existing Amazon.com account on AmazonSmile...everything stays the same. The AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of the purchase price from your eligible AmazonSmile purchases directly to Temple Beth David.

For more information you can go to: <https://smile.amazon.com/about>
