THE PRESIDENT WOULD LIKE TO SAY A FEW WORDS...

After a busy April, May promises to be no less jam-packed with great Temple events for all ages.

The fun begins on Saturday, May 6, when we will be celebrating Lag b'Omer outdoors with a Havdalah service, live music, a bon-fire, s'mores and, most amazingly, a mortgage-burning! Yes, that's right, we have paid off our mortgage. Kicked off by a legacy donation from Shelly and Ruth Alter, many of you have contributed to this important key to our financial security.

This should serve as a reminder to each of us to remember TBD in our estate planning. Even a small percentage can make a huge difference to the continuation of Jewish life on the Nature Coast. Look for more information about our Legacy program soon.

For teens, we will be offering another Teen Gaming Day, with an added bonus-painting, on Sunday May 7 from noon-4. Pizza lunch and snacks provided.

For women, Sisterhood will be having a Game Night at 7 PM on May 11. Rosh Chodesh will be offered at 6 PM on May 22; a dairy potluck supper and discussion of the new month of Sivan will be held.

The Mel Greene Brotherhood will once again be hosting all TBD Women for a complimentary Mother's Day Brunch starting at 10 am on Sunday, May 14. Men and all non-TBD members are also invited for $20 per person; Religious School kids are also free. Teens only $6.

Our Congregational Meeting will be held on Sunday May 21 at noon. Elections will be held; the budget will be presented and you will have the opportunity to give your input for the good of TBD. A light lunch will be served.

May 21 will also be the final day of Religious School, as kids and teachers get ready for Camp Chesed, to be held this year from June 12-16. Consider giving a Scholarship donation to offset expenses at the camp.

As you can see, there is something for families of all ages and interests.

JOIN US!!

L'shalom, Marlene

A message from the Rabbi

May 2023,

Dear Temple Beth David friends,

One of my favorite holidays is coming up at the end of this month and I am looking forward to sharing its customs and traditions with you.

The last week of May brings us to Shavuot (the feast of weeks). Our lead-up to this very important holiday is the process of counting each evening. For those who have been attending Shabbat services with me, whether in person or virtually, you have heard me talk about the traditions surrounding the counting of the omer and together we have been participating in this ancient custom. Each day of the Omer is acknowledged by number every evening after nightfall, from the second night of Passover till the night before Shavuot.

Counting each night is symbolically important. This process illustrates how we are taught to value every single day as being special all on its own. Each week of the counting, we focus on a different, specific Jewish value and how these values build upon one another to help us grow and deepen our own connection to living a holy life.

What does that mean to us? Living with a sense of holiness in how we approach life, in how we treat others, how we use our words and our actions is one way that we stay connected to Adonai and to one another. Holiness is a way to internalize and maintain our integrity.

What are we counting toward? We are counting the days leading to the receiving of Torah at Mt Sinai. It is said that every Jewish soul stood at Sinai, born and not yet born, to witness the giving of the Torah. Our narrative teaches that The Divine offered us the Torah and that we each have to choose for ourselves to receive it.

The Kotzker Rebbe was once asked: "Why is Shavuot called Z'man Matan Torah (the time that the Torah was Given, rather than 'the time the Torah was Received)?" He answered: "The giving took place on one day, but the receiving takes place at all times."

I look forward to "meeting you at Sinai" on Shavuot so that together, we may explore our own Jewish journeys, continue to build and reinforce our own sense of holiness, and choose, again and again, to receive Torah.

L'hitraot,

Rabbi Karen Tashman

April Meeting with the Fundraising Committee

The Fundraising Committee met on April 4th, for a follow-up discussion of the food fest, and also discuss future fundraising activities.

The food fest and Bazaar activity was, as probably all of you know by now, a success that is from a fundraising point of view but it was also a success from an organizational point of view, where everyone cooperated and worked together, for the best of TBD.

The “Babushka Babes,” the TBD baking team, led by Jan Humphreys, noted that they sold everything that was baked, and that they could have sold so much more.

Some future changes will be made – we need to be more pro-active when it comes to meet and invite non-members. A pen and a notebook (the analogue type with paper pages, not the digital ones) is a forceful tool, when it comes to make follow-ups on our visitors. Many of them wanted to be invited again, and we need their contact information.

Mickie made a drastic change of planning from last year, when the vendors was driving in, for unloading their products and needed to get out of way with their car and trailer. She made them drive out, in the very northeastern part of our parking lot, over the lawn, at the crossing of Antelope Street and Pomeroy Road.

Doing that, the next vendor could drive in and unload the products. Very effective!

The street-signs has to be fewer, and put up, close to a telephone pole. The latter is obviously a rule by the county. If not, we risk that they will be taken away.

Since the food fest was such a success, the committee decided to suggest to de board, to make another similar food fest, during the autumn of 2023.

Summary written by your editor, Ken Becker

Religious School

The month of April was full of great events at Temple Beth David and our Religious School. Passover started out the month. The children learned about Passover, and created crafts including decorating their own Afikomen bags, which were sewn by Jan Humphreys, with lettering by Nava Cohen.

Of course, many families attended the Passover Seder and the children could then look for their own hidden Afikomen!

The next event was an Intergenerational Shabbat Service with a Potluck kiddush.

Students had a chance to not only have a wonderful dinner but to sing on the Bima during the service.

Finally, this month Ha'atsmaut was celebrated with the students learning about Israel and attending a barbecue with the whole Congregation. There will be more great events to come in May!

Also, looking ahead, Camp Chesed will be resuming the week of June 12th. Registration has begun, and an application can be found on the Temple website.

Our shoe fund raiser for camp is continuing, any shoe donations are appreciated!

We have received some sponsors and a donation for Camp Chesed which is also appreciated.

There is still time to sponsor for camp, all sponsors will be recognized at the completion of camp in June.

TBD Pesach Dinner !

On April 5th, TBD had invited all members to its traditional Seder dinner.

The social hall was filled with people and catered by the Florida-based, NY style TooJays Catering.

Rabbi Karen Tashman led our youths from the TBD religious school through some of the songs, followed by some reading and singing efforts by the rest of the somewhat older members, table by table.

Finally, After a long search, Nathan found the afikomen, and was really happy, when he realized that he had won a price.

TBD remember and celebrates
Yom Hazikron remembrance day and
Yom Ha'Azmaut celebration day, on April, 23rd

TBD Religious School and Congregants celebrated Israel's 75th birthday on Sunday, April 23 with an indoor barbeque, beautiful music played by our violinist, Jill Pfluke, and Hatikvah sung by a few of our cantorial soloists – Lynn Budnick, Gayle Redding, and Amanda Veldorale-Griffin.

Over fifty people joined us in celebrating.

Our rabbinical candidate led the religious school kids in singing happy birthday, and we learned about some of the contributions Israelis have provided to modern-day society (like the cell phone!).

The indoor barbeque had options for hot dogs, coleslaw, potato salad, and delicious desserts including a cake decorated for Israel's birthday.

Did you know ? TBD got a new streaming system.

Some of you, who connect to the TBD “Yad” service, the video streaming system of TBD, have maybe noted a slight change of the picture quality.

The old computer TBD used for streaming wanted to retire.

It made its point clear to everyone, sending out green pictures from time to time. The service was hardly enjoyable.

The executive board took a decision to get a new computer, but also two new cameras, since the old camera didn't fulfill the requirements of the new techniques. Though, it still works, and can be used as a backup.

While looking for a new computer, Marty Reiman was kind enough to donate a gaming computer, and even being a few years old, it behaved much better, than the old one. Our 2nd VP, Larry Jasper, and Ken Becker was asked to get the computer in shape for the TBD Yad system.

Meanwhile, the two new HD cameras arrived, together with a new controller unit for moving and directing the cameras, as well as a video-mixer, the latter allowing not only the two cameras to be connected, but also connect the picture from the Rabbis laptop, up at the bimah. We now have three video sources, instead of one, and there is still a 4th option to connect an additional camera, if needed, i.e., at the social hall or at some activity outside the temple.

Larry and Ken, with the kind support by Bill Hager, were working for several days to get the system up and running, and even if there are some minor adjustments to be made, the system is now offering High-Definition video, during the services. There are still some adjustments to be done when it comes to the sound.

Larry, who ordered the equipment on Kens recommendation, worked hard with the physical installation of the camera system and two new computer monitors.

Ken was focusing on getting the cameras, the camera controller unit, the video mixer, and the computer to work as a system. In the pictures above , you can see the system spread out on a table, to verify that everything is working, as well as a hard-working 2nd vice President. Kathy Avalares is now, under the supervision of Larry Jasper, learning to run the new Yad system.
