The President would like to say a few words...

Dear Friends,
2022 has begun with a bang!

Rabbi Emanuel Ben-David has arrived to serve as our full-time Rabbi. If you have not yet met him, you will have many, and varied, opportunities. Rabbi Ben-David will be onsite, in his office, most days. You can make an appointment to see him, or drop by to say hi. He will be at Religious School each week to spend time with the students, parents and teachers.

- Education at all levels is his passion, so beginning immediately, he will be offering a Torah Study of the parashah of the week each Shabbos morning in person only, before services, at 9:15 am.
- Beginning on Monday, February 7, at 7:30 pm, Rabbi Ben-David will be holding a class on Jewish Thought, in person and on Zoom.
- Additionally, on the 2nd and 4th Thursdays, also at 7:30 pm, the Rabbi will be offering a series, All About Israel, in person and on Zoom.

All classes will be interactive, with much discussion encouraged. All classes will be free to Temple members.

Rabbi Ben-David's fascinating background should prove to put a different spin on all classes.

We hope you will take advantage of as many classes as you can.

It appears that we will finally be able to hold our Day At the Races on February 26. Don't forget to buy your $5 ticket (send a check or online at tbdf.org/events) for a night of fun.

We have been waiting to have a Congregational meeting until the Rabbi arrived. We will hold our February meeting on Monday February 28 at 7:30 pm. The meeting will be held in person and on Zoom. Be sure to attend to find out the latest Temple plans and also to give your input.

Last, but definitely not least, we need members who are willing to step up to leadership positions in the coming year. Temple Beth David functions almost completely through the hard work of our volunteers. To remain strong, new people must take the reins from those who have done so much in the past. Fresh ideas are needed so we don't become stagnant. Our Nominating Committee is waiting for your call to see how you can help. Members of the committee are Moshe Plager, chair, Dalia Baez, Eileen Beaman, Rick Fine and Mark Land. Call one of them to discuss the open positions and your strengths.

We are counting on you!!

L'shalom, Marlene

A message from the Rabbi

Shalom, dear members and friends of Temple Beth David,

This is my first contribution to the Chai-Lights Newsletter, and for that it deserves the special blessing we recite whenever we experience something new, the Sheheḥeyanu blessing. On one hand I am excited to be here and on the other hand I face with awe what it takes to be your Rabbi, teacher and spiritual leader.

Your warm welcoming and hospitality wrap me with a blanket of love, and I am grateful to you for that. I pray to HaShem that He will grant me success on the journey upon which I am about to embark with you: strengthening your Jewish identity and affiliation with Am Yisrael – the People of Israel.

There are several avenues that are part of this journey. Participating in services is one of them, not the only one. And it was heartwarming to see so many of you – both in-person and on Zoom from close and afar – joining us these last two Shabbatot.

Another avenue that I intend to widen is the avenue of study. We have started with a weekly Torah study, in which we delve into the weekly Parasha, just before Shabbat morning service. The first session was exciting, with many very active participants. As of the second week of February we will have two more classes, both in-person and on Zoom. The first will be held every Monday, titled “Jewish Thought”. The second series will be on every second and forth Thursdays, titled “It’s about Israel”. And we will also try to engage the teens in a program that will be tailored to meet their areas of interest.

In the “Jewish Thought” series we will explore many subjects: Halakha (Jewish Law), Talmud, Holidays, history and spirituality. We will also address some of the subjects that you, the participants, will be interested in. In the “It’s about Israel” program we will start with creating and agreeing to some ground rules that will enable all participants to feel safe in expressing their wide spectrum of difference opinions. We will then review the history of Zionism and the State of Israel, we will watch movies and discuss the lessons learned from them, and even tackle the “hot potato” called the Israeli-Palestinian conflict.

Another avenue, not less important, is the performance of Hesed – acts of lovingkindness. It starts with charity – to our congregation, and to the other needs of the larger community. Being involved in the Temple’s activities and help running it is yet another way to engage. It goes on with the list of acts that we read in our morning prayer of which hospitality, caring for the sick and tending to the dead are a few cornerstones.

I am here for you and available to respond to you. My door is (almost always) open. You can always find me through the Temple Beth David office.

Looking forward to get to know you and for you to get to know me,

Rabbi Emanuel

TBD Caring Committee cares !!

Do you do any of these Random Acts of Kindness?

Let someone cut in front of you in line at the store?

Randomly compliment a stranger?

Help someone who is struggling to carry their groceries?

Let someone else take that perfect parking spot?

Pay for the person behind you at the drive thru?

Bring treats to your local fire station?

Give old blankets, sheets and towels to an animal shelter?

How great would it be if we all tried to be humble and kind to others in 2022.

The Temple's Caring Committee has been dedicated to reaching out to all of our members especially these past 2 years. Our message has been sincere and hopefully appreciated by all.

Please notify the Temple, Rabbi Emanuel Ben David or Linda Weiner with any concerns whether it's mental, physical or emotional. The Temple has resources/referrals to help.

From the Buildings and Grounds committee

I want to thank Becky Stewart, Larry Jasper, Tina and Bill Hager, for the great help in redecorating the rabbis study, so Rabbi Ben-David can have a nice looking space to serve our congregation.

Becky and Larry helped to paint the Rabbi's study, Tina removed the old carpet, and Larry installed the laminated flooring, with the help of Bill.

The Temple also bought two new chairs for the Rabbi's study.

Mel Greene Institute to Combat Human Trafficking formed

By LARRY CLIFTON

Saint Leo University and the Pasco Sheriff's Office have jointly created the Mel Greene Institute to Combat Human Trafficking. Saint Leo University and a Pasco Sheriff's Office agency (called Florida Forensic Institute for Research, Security and Tactics or FIRST) named the institute for the late Spring Hill resident and philanthropist Melvin T. "Mel" Greene. Greene passed away in 2020 at the age of 92 after a life spent helping others in his adopted state of Florida, and beyond. Friends and associates of Mr. Greene decided steering grant resources to the new Institute would be a fitting way to pay tribute and carry on Greene's legacy.

Mel Greene's son, Danny Greene, of Indian Trail, North Carolina, had this to say about the Institute being named for his father: "My dad joined a Rotary Club some 50 years ago and it was life changing for him and our family. Combined with the Jewish practice of "Tik-

HERE'S ANOTHER WAY YOU CAN GIVE TO TBD!

Do you shop on Amazon? If yes, then we have an easy way to support Temple Beth David with each purchase you make. A few minutes is all it takes to set it up. Just type the word 'smile.' before Amazon.com and you will be brought to the same Amazon site, but on the fundraising side. (<http://smile.amazon.com/>)

Support
Temple Beth David.

When you shop at smile.amazon.com,
Amazon donates.

Go to smile.amazon.com

amazon smile

The first time you go to the 'Smile' side, you will be asked to choose the organization you wish to support. Search for Temple Beth David and make sure it is in Spring Hill (it's actually listed as Temple Beth David Jewish Center). Select us and then just use Amazon like you always do. Everything is exactly the same but remember, we only get credit if you order from the Smile side. It must say 'smile.amazon.com' every time. You use your existing Amazon.com account on AmazonSmile...everything stays the same. The AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of the purchase price from your eligible AmazonSmile purchases directly to Temple Beth David.

For more information you can go to: <https://smile.amazon.com/about>
