THE PRESIDENT WOULD LIKE TO SAY A FEW WORDS...

I am sitting at my desk, thanking God that we have seemingly dodged a bullet...

Hurricane Ian is headed south and east of here, and we will be experiencing rain and some wind. It remains to be seen if we will lose power or not, but, according to the forecast, we are on the outer bands of this storm. With Sukkot coming up soon, it just reinforces the fragility of our existence.

I have been touched by the concerns of my faraway family and friends, checking in as to our safety and invitations to flee to Texas, California and Massachusetts. I have also been comforted by the email weather updates offered by one of our Temple members.

This is the perfect time to offer assistance to those who are part of our Temple family, but sitting at home alone. Think of one or two members who are alone or in fragile health and reach out. The help can be as simple as just a phone call or email to let them know that they are really not alone, but have you to phone if they are feeling frightened. It could be an offer of hospitality at your home or to bring them some food when the storm lessens and it is safe to drive. This is what community is all about.

If you are reading this, but not yet a part of our TBD community, now is the ideal time to join, to be welcomed by a holy group of friends, a kehillah kadosha, a holy congregation, who really does care.

Please read this issue of the Chai Lights carefully: we have so many wonderful activities going on in October: From Yom Kippur services, Break the Fast, Sukkot and Simchat Torah celebrations, Sisterhood Trip to Crystal River, a Joy Katzen-Guthrie concert, free Diabetes classes, to our “usual” Torah and Hebrew study, Shabbat evening and morning services and Religious School.

Cont'd...

Experience hearing Cantor Bill Wood once again thrill us with the Kol Nidre; enjoy words of wisdom from our Interim Rabbi Karen Tashman, who will be with us not only for Yom Kippur, but also for Sukkot and Simchat Torah, as well as two Shabbat weekends each month.

Don't miss Kathy Avelares as she is called to the Torah as a Bat Mitzvah on October 15. Invite your friends and neighbors to our wonderful 3rd Annual Holiday Bazaar on November 6.

Thanks to all who have made this High Holiday season so meaningful: of course, to Rabbi Tashman and Cantor Bill, but also to those on the Ritual Committee, ushers, greeters, Torah readers, Haftarah readers, Ark openers and other service participants. It really does "take a village" and Temple Beth David is a very special village.

G'mar Hativah Tovah - May you be be inscribed in the Book of Life.

Marlene Shaw,
President

A message from the Rabbi

October 2022.

Shalom Temple Beth David Friends,

It's October already, and with it comes a few more Holy Days and some truly beautiful additional opportunities to celebrate together.

Yom Kippur arrives at the beginning of the month. We are taught that although Yom Kippur is the most solemn day of the year, it holds within it an undercurrent of joy; it is the joy of being immersed in the spirituality of the day and expresses confidence that the Divine will accept our repentance, forgive our sins, and seal us in the Book of Life for a year of life, health and happiness.

It is a jubilation that carries us with abundance into the celebration of Sukkot and Simchat Torah. Sukkot is also (and so appropriately) known as Z'man Simchateinu, the "Time of our Happiness" and leads us directly into Simchat Torah, Rejoicing of the Torah. The special days of Sukkot through Simchat Torah are, an often overlooked, continuation of the Holy Day Season.

It's the celebratory moments of the Jewish year that help us to remember how important it is to rejoice. I believe that Sukkot offers the perfect opportunity for experiential learning and for appreciating Jewish life using all our senses. And I can't think of any holiday more dedicated to the joy and appreciation of the gift of Torah, than when we gather together to sing, dance, and offer kavod (honor) on Simchat Torah. These are building blocks to nurturing Jewish identity in our children and in ourselves. These celebrations provide some of the most beautiful opportunities to create traditions and long-lasting memories within our own family and community.

Please plan to join me at Temple Beth David for the beginning of Sukkot on Sunday, October 9 and again for the culmination of this special time of festivity on Sunday, October 16 as we celebrate Simchat Torah. I am so looking forward to shaping and creating new memories with you.

May these upcoming days of delight bring you an abundance of opportunity for new moments in time, blessings for new beginnings and deepened appreciation for Judaism as a meaningful way of life.

L'hitraot,

Rabbi Karen Tashman

A special message from TBD Caring Committee

Our Caring Committee has been truly dedicated to contacting all of our TBD members throughout these past 20 months of social isolation due to the Pandemic. Our message has been sincere and hopefully appreciated by all. In many ways it has brought us all closer to those we may have never spoken to or known prior to this challenge. We want to share these beautiful written thoughts by Edgar Allen, Founder of Easter Seals, that reflect our mission.

"We have but one Life. We get nothing out of that life except by putting something into it. To relieve suffering, to help the unfortunate, to do kind acts and deeds is, after all, the one sure way to secure happiness or to achieve real success. Your life and mine shall be values not by what we take... but by what we give."

Please notify the Temple, a TBD member, or Marty Reiman, with any concerns, health issues, be it mental or physical. We have resources to help.

GIVING TO TBD HAS NEVER BEEN EASIER!

You can now make an online donation to Temple Beth David using your credit card or Paypal account. Just go to our website at www.tbdf.org and click on the "donate" tab on the top of the home page. We thank you for your support!

HERE'S ANOTHER WAY YOU CAN GIVE TO TBD!

Do you shop on Amazon? If yes, then we have an easy way to support Temple Beth David with each purchase you make. A few minutes is all it takes to set it up. Just type the word 'smile.' before Amazon.com and you will be brought to the same Amazon site, but on the fundraising side. (<http://smile.amazon.com/>)

Support Temple Beth David.

When you shop at smile.amazon.com,
Amazon donates.

Go to smile.amazon.com

amazonsmile

The first time you go to the 'Smile' side, you will be asked to choose the organization you wish to support. Search for Temple Beth David and make sure it is in Spring Hill (it's actually listed as Temple Beth David Jewish Center). Select us and then just use Amazon like you always do. Everything is exactly the same but remember, we only get credit if you order from the Smile side. It must say 'smile.amazon.com' every time. You use your existing Amazon.com account on AmazonSmile...everything stays the same. The AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of the purchase price from your eligible AmazonSmile purchases directly to Temple Beth David.

For more information you can go to: <https://smile.amazon.com/about>
