Revised June 24th, 2021 / KB

The President would like to say a few words...

It has been my habit, for the past year or two, to walk each morning (with my dog Rico) for about one hour between 7 and 8 AM. This has been wonderful for me in so many ways. The most obvious, of course, is for my health. Daily brisk walking is good for your weight, heart, lungs, balance, stamina and so much more. But, just as in Torah reading, if you go deeper, the benefits are even greater.

Each day, during my walk, I sing the Modah Ani: I give thanks to God for allowing me to wake up that morning. My gratitude does not stop there, however: walking also opens my mind in so many directions. I realize how grateful I am for the state of my health that allows me to walk four miles a day. I am also thankful for the opportunities God has afforded me: the gift of showing kindness to others my Creator has bestowed; wonderful friends and family I can love. I am grateful to those “pioneer Jews” who moved to this area in the 70’s and 80’s and made it possible to have a welcoming Jewish community and a beautiful building to house us in: Temple Beth David. I am grateful also that, during this difficult year of the pandemic, when each of us could have felt completely isolated, the many beautiful services and events, be they virtual or in person, have given us a crucial sense of togetherness. I am grateful that, even as we have experienced illnesses and losses, our sense of “family” has allowed us to lend a healing hand to those suffering.

As I continue my walk, my thoughts expand to the many ways each of us can show gratitude to our Creator and, just as importantly, to each other. As we come closer to the New Year, leaving the month of Av and entering the month of Elul, let us reflect and give thanks for the blessings bestowed upon us in the past year and look forward to a beautiful and vibrant year to come at Temple Beth David. I also invite those who have not yet joined us, or have left for awhile, to become a part of our family, as we give gratitude.

L'shalom, Marlene

Message from Reb Tuviah.

Well, the High Holy Days are fast approaching which begs the question...what was the last big thing you prepared for? A vacation, the beginning of the school year, a house renovation project? When did you start getting ready? A week ahead, a month? We recognize that important things in our lives take preparation. No one goes on vacation without thinking about what to pack. No one approaches a big project without gathering the necessary materials. No good teacher walks into the classroom on the first day of school unprepared. As responsible and thoughtful people, preparation is a part of our lives. Preparation is also a central part of our High Holy Day experience.

Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur demand deep reflection too intense for just those days. And so we have the Jewish month of Elul, which begins on the evening of Aug. 8th. This is a time to review the past year and spiritually prepare for the High Holy Days. If “spiritual preparation” seems as daunting or intimidating as meditating for ten hours or even just finding 20 uninterrupted minutes, here are some practical ideas to ease you into the new year and ensure a richer and more meaningful High Holy Day experience.

1. Go over your calendar from last year. Take out last year’s calendar and go over each month. What moments are you most proud of? Who did you not make time to see? What event surprised you? Explore what went right and what went wrong throughout the year.

2. Talk with family and friends. Judaism is a religion of community and family. Our religious ideal is not an individual meditative state, but being with others. Ask your loved ones, “What was a low point in our relationship last year?” and “How did we move forward and how can we continue to strength our relationship?” Let the questions open up a conversation about forgiveness and love.

3. Read online. Many of us are on our computers and smart phones more than we’d like to admit. Let us engage these tools in our spiritual preparation. This time is like no other as we now have access to an abundance of online Jewish teachings. Simply do a search for “Elul” or “The High Holidays” and off you go!

4. Join us for the President’s Reception followed by a very sweet S’lichot service, on Saturday, August 28th at 7:00pm. On the Saturday evening before Rosh Hashanah, the TBD community comes together to support each other and engage in prayer, reflection, storytelling and song. It is a beautiful and meaningful way to begin the High Holy Days.

May this time of preparation draw us closer to those we love and to ourselves and may we enter Temple Beth David on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur prepared for the majesty of the season. Nancy and I so look forward to spending the High Holidays with all of you!

Shanah Tova,

Reb Tuviah

A special message from TBD Caring Committee

Our Caring Committee has been truly dedicated to contacting all of our TBD members throughout these past 15 months of social isolation due to the Pandemic. Our message has been sincere and hopefully appreciated by all. In many ways it has brought us all closer to those we may have never spoken to or known prior to this challenge. We want to share these beautiful written thoughts by Edgar Allen, Founder of Easter Seals, that reflect our mission.

"We have but one Life. We get nothing out of that life except by putting something into it. To relieve suffering, to help the unfortunate, to do kind acts and deeds is, after all, the one sure way to secure happiness or to achieve real success. Your life and mine shall be values not by what we take... but by what we give."

Please notify the Temple, a TBD member, Reb Tuviah or Linda Weiner with any concerns, health issues, be it mental or physical. We have resources to help.

From the Membership Committee

Temple Beth David Membership Committee was finally able to have our New Member Luncheon, Sunday July 18. I say "finally", as we had to postpone the luncheon---Covid-19 reared its ugly virus, which cancelled so many events. The luncheon was held in our Judy Greene Social Hall and was well attended by new members, Reb Tuviah, Marlene Shaw, Pres; Ronnie Cohen, 1st VP and others from the TBD Board of Directors. Everyone loved the extensive buffet of wraps, vegies with dips and an assortment of fruit made by our own Marty Reiman. Dessert was a wonderful assortment of cookies and the fun of having ice cream cones (do it yourself) Some new members volunteered immediately for clean up and other committee activities. A good time was had by all.

And now it's time to look forward to our Open House, Sunday August 22 at 11:00am. If you know Jewish families, with or without children, please let them know about this event to learn about our temple, and to enjoy what we have to offer.

Shalom,
Ellie Catcher

From the Safety and Security Committee

The TBD Safety and Security committee had a meeting on July 19th.

The meeting was held in the TBD social hall, and on Zoom.

Issues on the agenda were, as follows:

A fire drill for the religious school.

A date is to be selected for a AED/CPR in person training.

Estimates will be obtained for the walkways from the rear exits to the blacktop. We will try to obtain a grant to cover this.

Security for the stage – if it was to be made permanent – was discussed. It was decided not to go forward with making it permanent therefore no action is required.

Beginning Friday July 23rd we will have the Deputy in the office for the services and the religious school.

A discussion was held and it was decided to get an estimate, regarding replacing the main entry door with one that can be remotely opened, as well as have either key cards or combinations.

A concrete pad will be installed for the dumpster.

The committee need a board policy, to not allow smoking within 50 feet of the building.

Respectfully submitted,
Larry Jasper

Dear TBD members and Chai Lights Newsletter readers,

As many of you may remember, Rabbi Lenny served as our spiritual leader from 2013-2016. He developed our Yad program that has allowed us all to enjoy services during the pandemic. He also led a mind-opening Talmud class that many enjoyed for at least two years. A scientist before he entered the rabbinate, Rabbi Lenny has turned his talents to helping the blind.

Rabbi Lenny have now created the first Braille Sefer Torah in the world.

This was presented in an article, in the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, concerning a wonderful mitzvah recently completed by Rabbi Lenny Sarko.

Yashir Koach, Rabbi Lenny!

Reb Tuviah has been the Rabbi of Temple Beth David since September 2016. Previously, he had been the spiritual leader of various Jewish groups and has been involved in the Jewish Day School environment for many years. Reb Tuviah continues to bring a breath of fresh air to the TBD family by sharing his joy of Judaism through deeply spiritual teachings and heartfelt music.

Cantor Bill has a Master's Degree and an honorary Doctorate of Sacred Music from Hebrew Union College in New York, where he was ordained in 1988. Previously, he held a full-time cantorial position at Central Synagogue in Rockville Centre, NY. HERE'S ANOTHER WAY YOU CAN GIVE TO TBD!

Do you shop on Amazon? If yes, then we have an easy way to support Temple Beth David with each purchase you make. A few minutes is all it takes to set it up. Just type the word 'smile.' before Amazon.com and you will be brought to the same Amazon site, but on the fundraising side. (<http://smile.amazon.com/>)

The first time you go to the 'Smile' side, you will be asked to choose the organization you wish to support. Search for Temple Beth David and make sure it is in Spring Hill (it's actually listed as Temple Beth David Jewish Center). Select us and then just use Amazon like you always do. Everything is exactly the same but remember, we only get credit if you order from the Smile side. It must say 'smile.amazon.com' every time. You use your existing Amazon.com account on AmazonSmile...everything stays the same. The AmazonSmile Foundation will donate 0.5% of the purchase price from your eligible AmazonSmile purchases directly to Temple Beth David.

For more information you can go to: <https://smile.amazon.com/about>
